

Pardal Verdejo

12% vol.

1. Appearance

Greenish yellow wine with fruity aroma.

2. Aroma and flavours

Well-defined flavors of stone fruits, almonds, along with tips of citrus rind.

3. Taste

The entry to the palate is greedy, dominating the glycerin, with superb structure and freshness throughout its path.

Did you know ...

It is likely that the grapes were brought from Algaida, in North Africa. The first strains of this variety from Spain were planted during the reign of Alfonso VI.

4. Wine pairing

All types of fish, mainly soft-tasting, seafood and smoked fish.

5. Wine characteristics

Low

High

Body

Tannin

Acidity

